Joint Symposium: University of Michigan-Michigan State University-Wayne State University
University of Michigan: Michigan Institute for Clinical and Health Research; Michigan Alzheimer's Disease Center;
East Ann Arbor Health and Geriatrics Center; Michigan Older Americans Independence Center;
Michigan State University: College of Human Medicine; Wayne State: Institute of Gerontology

"Advances in Health and Aging Research Across the Translational Spectrum"

Building networks of cross-disciplinary translational research in aging across Michigan

Tuesday, October 29, 2019

Wyndham Garden Inn
2900 Jackson Ave.
Ann Arbor, MI 48103

Schedule of Events

Reception and poster set up (light breakfast provided)
   8:00am - 9:00am

Plenary session by senior fac: 3 x 20 min talks (15 min + questions)
   9:00am - 10:00am
   - Vicki Johnson-Lawrence, M.S., Ph.D. (Michigan State University)- "What Should We Do? Using Participatory Research Methods to Improve Health Outcomes for Aging Adults in Flint, MI"
   - Scott Roberts, Ph.D. (University of Michigan)- "Disclosing Genetic and Biomarker Results to Individuals at Risk for Alzheimer's Disease"
   - Jeffrey Stanley, Ph.D. (Wayne State University)- "Altered hippocampal glutamate modulation related to memory consolidation in healthy aging: Evidence from functional magnetic resonance spectroscopy"

Discussion regarding national and local Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementia research funding
   10:00am - 10:45am
   - Henry Paulson, M.D., Ph.D., Professor of Neurology, Director of the Michigan Alzheimer's Disease Center

Poster session (approximate size 2' x 3' MAX)
   10:45am - 12:00pm

Lunch and Networking
   12:15pm - 1:00pm

Speed Networking session
   1:00pm - 2:30pm

Speed networking session: introduce yourself, your work, and NETWORK.
[If you are not presenting a poster, please provide me with the tentative title of your short presentation for the networking session.]

We encourage participants, PARTICULARLY JUNIOR FACULTY, to participate in the Networking session. Each participant will present a short (3-5 min) introduction of their work. Participants are requested to submit 1-2 slides or storyboard (both to be reproduced onto standard 8.5 x 11 inch paper)
x 20 COPIES TO BRING WITH THEM TO SHARE WITH THE GROUP DURING THE INTRODUCTION

Please RSVP (Junior faculty send intro and poster title) to Katie Hildebrand at kkovalic@umich.edu or 734-764-2719 by October 15th.