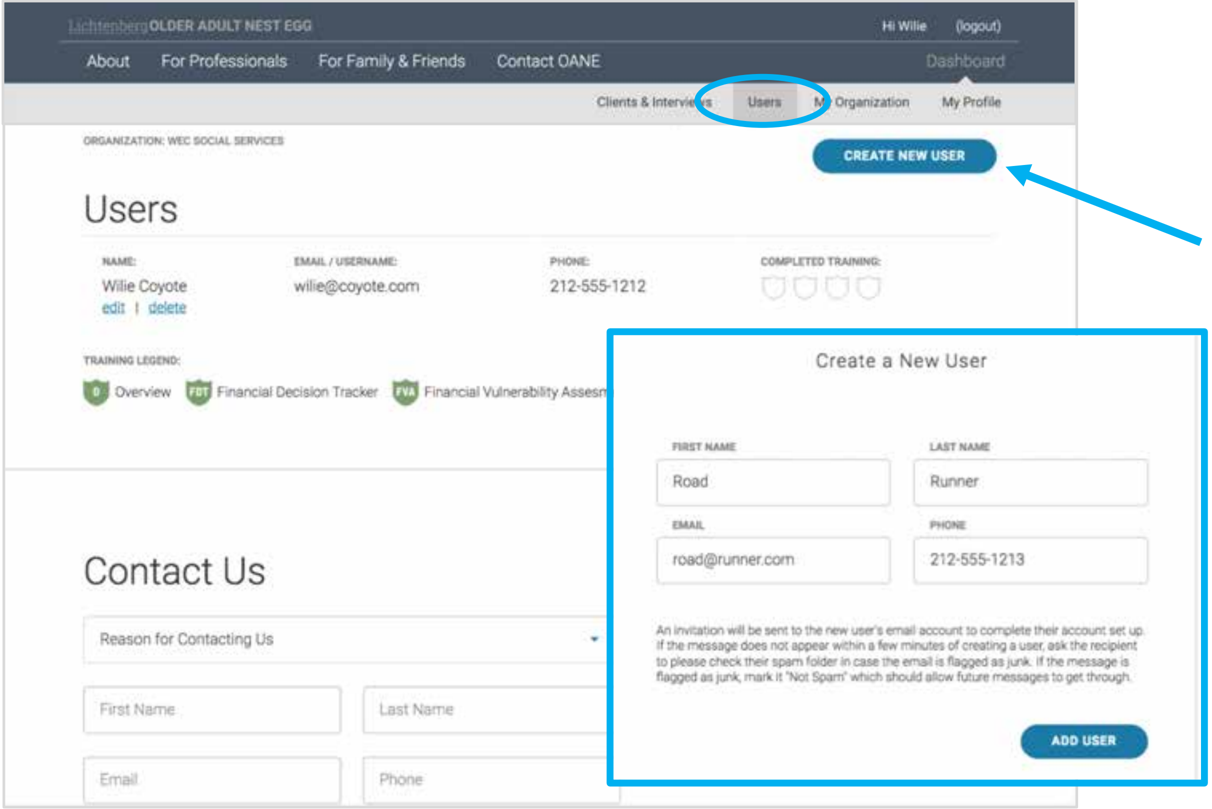
Adding and Inviting Users to Your OANE Organization Account



- While you are logged in to your OANE Organization Account, the header will change color and you will be on your admin "Dashboard"
- Select the "Users" tab in the primary navigation.
- Click "Create New User"

A "Create a New User" pop-up window will appear and you will enter the name, email and phone number of the user. When you do this, OANE automatically sends an email that instructs the new user how to set up a password for their login.

Continue to next page to view the automated email sent by the OANE system.

When you “Create a New User” OlderAdultNestEgg.com will send this automated email to your user

Please note:
Before you start using the “Create a New User” feature to enter all your people, we recommend that you send an email to your potential users informing them that you’ve set up an organization account on Older Adult Nest Egg (OANE) and they should expect and email with a unique link in order to create a password to log in as a user. Stress that they must only use the password link provided in the OlderAdultNestEgg email.

They should not create an individual account by using the ”Sign Up” feature on Older Adult Nest Egg (OANE). If they do this, you will not be able to oversee the usage.

Your organization administrator has created an account for you at Older Adult Nest Egg.
Please use the following URL to create your password:

After you have created a password your account activation is complete. You are now able to get certified and begin using the interview tools when you "Log in" at OlderAdultNestEgg.com.

The above link for this invitation will expire in 72 hours. If you were not able to create your password before the link expired, click "Forgot Password" to receive another link.

Once users have created a password for their account, they can start certification and usage of the tools by visiting OlderAdultNestEgg.com, clicking login in the upper right hand corner and entering their email address and password.

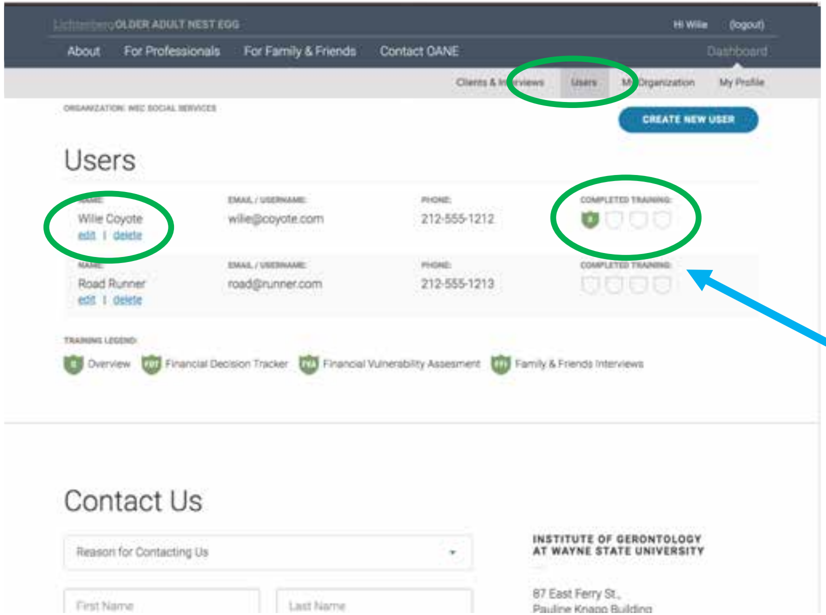
If your organization blocks outside emails, people may have to check their spam folder for their OlderAdultNestEgg.com invitation.

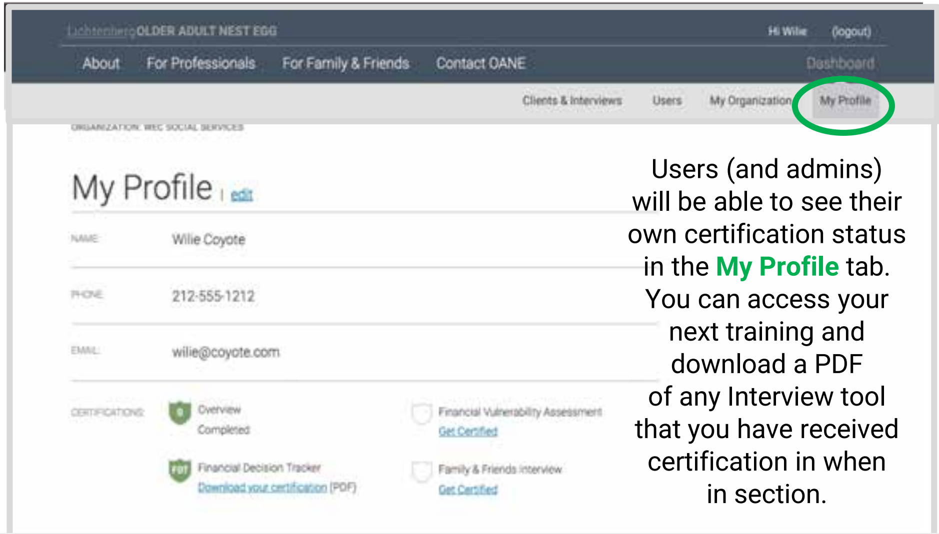
Admin Dashboard

"User" Tab for Administrators

As and Administrator of an OANE organization account you have four tabs when you are logged in to OANE. When your users log in to OANE they will two tabs “My Profile” and “Clients & Interviews”

Once a new users finalize the set up of their account by creating a password you will then be able to see all their account information in your dashboard when you select the User tab. When their training badges turn green that means they have successfully completed the certification for a module.





Users (and admins) will be able to see their own certification status in the My Profile tab. You can access your next training and download a PDF of any Interview tool that you have received certification in when in section.

PLEASE NOTE: Certification of a very brief "overview" is required to access the Financial Decision Tracker (FVA). Once that is completed, the remaining two training modules will be unlocked for certification. Each Interview tool will become available after its post-test has been successfully completed. Users have told us that it has taken them between 45 minutes and 1.5 hours to get certified in all 4 modules at once. It Is not unusual to have to take the Financial Vulnerability Assessment (FVA) twice before passing.

FINANCIAL DECISION YOU ARE MAKING/HAVE MADE:

Investment planning (retirement, insurance, portfolio balancing)

INTERVIEW DATE: MARCH 28, 2019

OLDER ADULT NEST EGG DECISIONAL ABILITY SCORE:

No Concerns

Based on interview, we recommend the decisional ability grade of no concerns for your client`s financial decisional abilities to make this decision/transaction.

Risk Rating: 4

Your client scored in the low risk range. The Tracker identifies no concerns about your client's ability to make this financial decision.

RATING REFERENCE

NO CONCERNS
Clients at low risk demonstrate the capacity to make their financial decisions with awareness, integrity and autonomy. If a transaction is involved, it should be allowed to proceed.

SOME CONCERNS
Clients at moderate risk demonstrate a degree of impairment in their capacity to make the financial decision with awareness, integrity and autonomy. The cause of this impairment could be a temporary issue or the beginnings of a more serious deficit. Capacity could be affected by the degree of complexity of the financial decision. We recommend postponing any financial transaction. Further evaluation of the client may be necessary.

MAJOR CONCERNS
Clients at high risk demonstrate a significant degree of impairment in their capacity to make the financial decision with awareness, integrity and autonomy. We recommend postponing any financial transaction and encouraging the client to receive further evaluation.
